

Dear Baron Victor von Frankenstein,

It may be in your best interest to know that using my not inconsiderable resources I have tracked down your missing "children". I am aware of your recent expulsion from the Illuminati and offer my services in gaining revenge on those individuals who placed you in this predicament; namely Messer's Boris Brassey, Jean-Luc Pepper, Maxfield Colewell and Tarquin Boufounder whom the queen in her dementia has made knights of the realm would you believe!

A fortuitous event occurred to Sir Boufounder where upon he has lost his left arm and will no doubt be happy to be issued with a replacement, something which is well within your inspired medical ability to deliver. I merely ask you to agree to this and I will bequeath you your children as well as the necessary money and resources to continue your great work.

Yours in admiration

"M"
